

LOUIS ON LEWIS: A LEARNING JOURNEY INTO C.S. LEWIS GUIDED BY DR. LOUIS MARKOS

To our network of Princetonians who are interested in the life and writings of C.S. Lewis, and the unique “nexis” between Princeton and “Jack” (as Tolkien and other friends called him).

Here are key videos by this year’s featured speaker at our Princeton Reunions event-- Professor Louis Markos. He addresses an array of topics on the life and writings of C.S. Lewis. These presentations are spectacular in content and quality—they are produced by none other than the American Teaching Company.

Of these, video #1 serves as a great intro--serving as our “launch point” for the scholarship of Lewis. These Vimeo clips can be viewed using the password listed below alongside the link. (Sorry, lectures Four and Five had glitches in our Vimeo uploading process. Yet all is not lost; the entire audio series of these lectures is available from the American Teaching Company.)

Our hope and prayer is that you will enjoy and benefit greatly from these classic Lewis lectures done by a dear friend of the C.S. Lewis Society (founded at Princeton in 1975). Dr. Louis ranks as one of the top Lewis scholars in the world today. Enjoy!
